

PRESIDENT BOATWRIGHT

HE ACCEPTS THE CHIEF OFFICE OF RICHMOND COLLEGE.

Asks That the Board of Trustees Will Hold a Special Meeting and Invite Anyone to Ventilate His Views.

Prof. F. W. Boatwright, of the chair of modern languages of Richmond College, who was on the 11th of December, 1894, elected by the Board of Trustees...

Dear Sir:—At a meeting of the trustees of Richmond College, on the 11th instant, you were elected president of the college, to take effect two days after the next commencement...

The undersigned are happy in being the medium of self-explanatory, and accept the position with its duties, trials and responsibilities.

Yours very truly, J. L. CURRY, Secretary.

C. H. RYLAND, Secretary.

HIS LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 1, 1895.

Hon. J. L. Curry, President of Board of Trustees, Rev. Charles H. Ryland, D. D., Secretary of the Board, Richmond College.

Yours call, accompanied by confidence and affection, has caused me gratefully and thoroughly to review my life.

At the time that the above letter was handed to the officers of the college, the president received the following, which it was decided to give to the public:

GIVES ALL A CHANCE.

At the time that the above letter was handed to the officers of the college, the president received the following, which it was decided to give to the public:

Dear Sir:—Since my election to the presidency of Richmond College, I have not been disturbed by this, and I have no intention of being so, no one is readier than I to concede to every man the right to his own opinion.

THE FIRST OF THE YEAR.

How New-Year's Day Was Celebrated in Richmond—Governor's Reception.

The infant year 1895 was not marked in the first day of its existence with such observations as some of the distinguished and prominent citizens of the city have made.

They are using every exertion to get their business affairs in shape, and well up, according to the usual custom.

The old-time fashion of general calls has, however, on account of its abuses, happily fallen into disuse, and no more was the gay and festive youth, clad in a dress suit, seen going from residence to residence.

Skating was the chief pleasure of the day. The ice on the New Reservoir Lake, Forest Hill Lake and Young's Pond is several inches thick.

Informal receptions were held here and there. Gov. Dr. W. E. Hunter, the popular and well-known physician, gave a reception at his residence on the 1st of the year.
